

Band Camp Checklist

- ✓ Instrument (Mouthpiece, valve oil, reeds, cork grease, neck strap, color guard equipment, sticks, mallets, etc)
- ✓ Your Lunch – Please pack a lunch EVERYDAY. We will provide snacks throughout the day.
- ✓ Bookbag – It's easy to carry stuff from the band room to the field and back and it keeps your stuff organized.
- ✓ Fanny Pack – Optional equipment (Holds dotbook, valve oil, lip balm, pencil, etc)
- ✓ Binder w/ sheet protectors for your music (for winds and percussion only)
- ✓ Dotbook - Bound notecards on a shoestring or lanyard (Used to plot drill coordinates – front ensemble will not need, but everyone else will)
- ✓ Lyre and Flip Folder (Winds only – purchase at local music store – bring instrument for perfect fit)
- ✓ PENCIL(s) – sharpened and usable
- ✓ Water Jug – Igloo 1/2 Gal. Legend works best / something similar is fine – You will go through a lot of water. Mandatory Equipment. Camel Backs are not permitted on the field. All students will receive ample water breaks. We will provide large water jugs to refill your personal bottles. Make sure to load yours up with ice in the morning.
- ✓ Sunscreen – (SPF 50 or higher) – This is not the time to get a tan... you will burn if not careful
- ✓ Insect Repellent... AKA Bug Spray
- ✓ Lip Balm – Winds, consider purchasing ChopSaver.
- ✓ Hat – Wide brim if possible
- ✓ Sunglasses
- ✓ T-Shirt and Shorts (Athletic shorts are best) – School regulations for dress are also enforced during camp. This means you are covered. Ladies (or gentlemen), spandex may be worn if covered by shorts, but not your only bottoms.
- ✓ Socks and Tennis Shoes – No Flip Flops / Sandals / Bare Feet allowed on the field or at basics block.
- ✓ A change of clothes (shirt, shorts, socks, shoes, etc) – You will sweat... you will feel nasty.
- ✓ Deodorant – We will check... No one wants to smell that... Please be considerate of others with breathing allergies / asthma... if at all possible, stick only – no spray.
- ✓ Other Hygienic Needs...
- ✓ A Beach Towel – for stretches